School Overview

The Chinese School of Greenville (CSG) was established in 1973. The mission of the school is to teach Chinese language and introduce Chinese culture. The school is a non-profit organization attached to the Greenville Chinese Culture Association (GCCA), and is not involved in any political or religious activities.

Currently, CSG has more than 140 students. Language classes include K4, Pinyin, grade 1 to 7, and Adult Practical Chinese. All teachers hold highly qualified degrees and Chinese is their native language. Classes are conducted mainly in Chinese, with English as an aid for explanation as needed. Teachers always apply various methods to stimulate students' interest. To further improve teaching quality, the school encourages and supports its teachers to take training courses on Chinese teaching.

Not only does CSG provide an excellent Chinese learning environment, it also offers various extracurricular activity classes, such as dance, drawing, math, English, drama, SAT, and martial arts. These classes have been highly welcomed by the students. In addition, the school regularly provides its students opportunities in public speech and performance, and encourages them to participate in the local Chinese Culture exchange activities to help them acquire leadership skills. Recently, the dancing class has been selected to participate in the "Carolina's Got Talent"; the math class has earned the "Math Count Golden Status" from the state and won a top prize in math competition.

We need your help. The success of CSG heavily relies on many people from our community. Your participation and contribution to the school will be highly appreciated.
